Working title

Propose a working title of your draft synopsis.

Relevance and significance of the proposed research

This irreducibly requires of you to importantly answer: Why have you chosen the proposed topic?

Review of literature

Briefly review the significant literature in the area of your proposed research to persuasively answer: How would your proposed research contribute to the existing literature in the area of your proposed research?

Research questions/aims

Concisely state all your research questions/aims required and allowed by the scope of your proposed research.

[Hypothesis]

State your any research hypothesis if and as required by your proposed research.

Research methodology

State your proposed research methodology.

Tentative chapterization

Give a tentative chapterization communicating the plan of conducting your proposed research covering all your research questions/aims.

Bibliography

Include a short bibliography of the relevant literature (Please do not include any references you do not require for conducting your proposed research).

(For all further, please consult your supervisor)